Policy No.
003/2002

POLICY OBJECTIVE

To ensure the fair selection of a Queensland representative team that is based on clear and explicit, performance based criteria.

POLICY

The following criteria will apply in nominating entries for all events / divisions in Australian Figure Skating Championships:

- 1. Results in the Queensland Figure Skating Championships in that year.
This criterion applies to the first three (3) place-getters in events / divisions with more than three (3) entries.
- 2. Ability to perform required elements (as per Short Program in their respective event / division) in the current year's competitive performances.
This criterion applies to –
 - (a) competitors in the Queensland Championships' events / divisions with three (3) or less than three (3) entries; and
 - (b) competitors in the Queensland Championships' events / divisions placed fourth & subsequent, who wish to nominate for additional places that may be available or as reserves.
- 3. Irrespective of individual placing, athletes will be nominated only for the event / division in which they competed in the Queensland Championships in that year.
- 4. Senior event / division entries may be nominated on previous results in Senior event / divisions of the Australian Championships or on the basis of overseas competitive experience.
- 5. All entrants must skate all components of their event at the QFSC, to be eligible for nomination to the AFSC, as follows:-
 - (a) Ice Dance: Compulsory Dances + Original Dance Program + Free Dance Program
 - (b) Singles & Pairs: Short Program + Free Skating Program
 - (c) Synchronized Adult /Novice: Free Skating Program
 - (d) Synchronized Junior / Senior: Short Program + Free Skating Program
- 6. Members of Ice Skating Queensland, nominated by Queensland to the Australian Figure Skating Championships shall not skate for another State at AFSC in Synchronized, Singles, Pairs or Dance in that year.

REASONING

To encourage skater's best performances at the Queensland Championships.
ISQ provides significant funding and facilities to our skaters and is entitled to expect loyalty to Queensland and its Nationals Team for that support.
